

1 ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

2 Fabricated excavator teeth comprising projections cut from hard, highly 3 abrasion steel plate or bar stock, for example having a Brinell Hardness 4 exceeding 225, and as high as 400 or higher, welded to cores through 5 which the teeth may be connected with excavator apparatus, including any 6 kind of digging implement, such as buckets and ripping arms, and any kind 7 of excavating machine, such as power shovels, backhoes and dredges.